Who are we?

Established in 2013, CXO Genie is a network of over 2000 Senior Industry Professionals and continuously growing, who have come together with the common objective of solving any given problem within 15 minutes. Based on the "Mastermind" concept, formally introduced by Napoleon Hill in his book "Law of Success", it enables members to solve complex problems with inputs and advice form like-minded CXOs.

Our Objective

Besides the primary objective of solving real life problems being faced by CXOs, the other objective is networking with fellow CXO members in India as well as with members based in Middle East, Southeast Asia, Europe, USA and East Africa. The nature of queries range from topics that can be professional like seeking advice on business/financial aspects or request for sharing contacts of experts or to ask for recommendations of consultants, open jobs, candidates etc. Also, there is no restriction on queries that are personal in nature. In case of emergencies, the entire family comes together to help each other.

CXO Genie Highlights

Exclusivity
By Invitation only , membership is limited to accomplished and like-minded professionals. It is a closed group, with strict privacy adherence & limited social presence

Efficiency

An App-based Platform

CXO Genie APP is a platform, that the forum uses to leverage the power of Technology and enabling solutioning within 15 Mins (And by the way, we have built it with the belief that even Hiring a candidate should be a 15 Mins thing!)

While the App packs in a lot of technology, below are some top features and benefits:

Real time solutions
Solutions to any given problem within 15 minutes.

Member directory
Reach out to any fellow member on your fingertip through inbuilt member directory.

Micro learning platform
Learn from other queries/challenges being solved by fellow CXO members

Access to historical solutions
New members get complete view of all past topics discussed prior to their joining.

Hire in 15 Mins
Browse database or Post a role and the AI enabled platform suggests top 3 matches of high-quality talent pre-recommended by CXOs.

Cross Forum Expertise
Automatic solutioning/ resolution to cross functional queries

"CFO Genie App is very good. We can post subject wise queries and go back to refer all responses with respect to that particular query. Whenever we have some important query we can also post there, It may be easy at a later date to refer."

Radha Ramanujan | CFO – Ashirwad Pipes

"The CXO Genie App is quite a powerful app designed to get things done for CXOs very fast."

Balaji Reddipalli | Group Head – Supply Chain and IT, Borosil Glass Works

CXO Genie Mastermind Series

The "CXO Genie Mastermind Summit" is a gathering of accomplished CXOs representing diverse set of corporates. The Summit brings together the game changers from different disciplines to share their ideas and expertise with the keynote speakers and their peers through panel discussions and round table strategy meets. Along with domain specialist speakers, the conference also hosts motivational and iconic speakers, who share their insights into thought-provoking, topical issues, inspiring the audience to take meaningful action in the right direction.

Key Takeaways: Contribute back to society before it is too late. We are lucky and blessed. There are lots of people who need help. God has given this opportunity. Do not miss it.

S.G. Murali, Executive VP, TVS Motors

A very well organised event indeed. Loved the roundtable interactions. Great insights presented by Capt. Raghu. Candid and straight from the heart responses from Shekhar Kapoor.

Sandeep Banerjee, Senior VP and Head HR at H&R Johnson (India)

Our other Signature Events

Masterclass – Webinars

Masterclass is a series of webinars on the most discussed topics on the CXO Genie platform. Subject matter experts on the specific topic are invited to conduct learning and mentorship sessions where they deliver powerful content, have insightful discussions and tailored learning opportunities. These sessions are also open to the teams of our members.

MasterConnect Meets

We also host quarterly roundtables in 6 identified cities including Pune, Chennai, Hyderabad, apart from Delhi, Bangalore and Mumbai. These meets serve as unparalleled opportunities for our members to collaborate with each other by exchanging ideas, share experiences and insights to develop partnerships and grow together.

Ignite Series

While the MasterClass today is synonymous with technical learning and knowledge-based sessions, the Ignite series aims to rekindle the fire in all of us. These sessions incite members to awaken and take the right actions on topical and thought-provoking issues. These talks are open to the teams, friends and families of our members as well.

Rejuvenate Series

The Rejuvenate Series brings together our CXOs and their families from across the regions travelling to an exquisite location, in an informal and relaxed environment. Join us as we build the CXO Genie community as one cohesive unit over 2 days packed full of motivational and inspiring sessions; catching-up with friends, old and new; energising activities and fun-filled entertainment! Let us Rejuvenate!

Other Initiatives

StarLeaf Talent Solutions

One of the biggest challenges the CXOs face today is finding the right talent for their team.

With the power of our AI enabled platform coupled with the reach of its network and functional knowledge, we make hiring the right talent faster, easier and lucrative for you.

Secure and Protect your Family (SPF)

SPF Program is a member support initiative to provide guidance to our members on how to record their legal and financial details in a manner that these details are easily accessible by their families in case of an emergency. We do not hold custody of any personal, legal or financial details of our members.

Saarthi Mentorship Program

Using your experience in the right way, CXO Genie offers an unparalleled opportunity to become a mentor for new-age CXOs and start-ups. It is curated to help mentees bring out their best and work towards their business goals under the mentorship of experienced professionals and industry veterans.
